

An underwater photograph of a swimmer in a pool, viewed from below. The swimmer is wearing a black long-sleeved swimsuit and a pink swim cap. They are in a streamlined position, moving from left to right. The water is clear blue, and there are ripples and bubbles around the swimmer. The pool's lane lines are visible on the bottom.

MA SPORTS ETHICS AND INTEGRITY MAiSI CONSORTIUM

A world-first innovation for international sports administration and governance responding to the global challenge in sports integrity

International Olympic Committee: Olympic Solidarity Scholarships for new Master Degree

- The Olympic Solidarity programme is sponsoring up to 6 former Olympian scholars to study on a new and prestigious 2 year Master degree in Sport Ethics and Integrity www.maisi-project.eu
- Successful applicants will join a global cohort of highly motivated students who will go on to develop careers in sport integrity and governance
- Key curriculum topics include anti doping policy; disability sport ethics; gender ethics; good governance; match fixing and event manipulation; safeguarding; sport integrity violations.
- Entry requirement: (i) former Olympian; (ii) bachelor degree; and English Language Certificate (eg IELTS score 6.5, Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency or TOEFL test -total score 90 minimum)

WHAT IS MAiSI?

A two year Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree in Sports Ethics and Integrity – an innovative multidisciplinary programme that:

- Is a catalyst for a new profession within sports administration
- Will bring together high level scholars in a consortium of Universities with a focus on professionally orientated concerns
- Equips students for high-level careers in sports administration and governance, concentrating on the development of stronger ethical sports cultures, and developing tools for sports integrity and compliance
- Delivers training that enables students to identify ethical issues, engage in ethical thinking, and translate decisions into ethical actions – the three core skills required to develop sports integrity
- Responds to the greatest contemporary threat to the sports industry – the global challenge to sports integrity innovation for sports administration and governance

The MAiSI Consortium

Swansea
University
Prifysgol
Abertawe

CHARLES
UNIVERSITY
IN PRAGUE

JOHANNES GUTENBERG
UNIVERSITÄT MAINZ

Universitat
Pompeu Fabra
Barcelona

UNIVERSITY OF PELOPONNESE

THE MAISI CURRICULUM

1. ANTI-DOPING, SPORTS ETHICS + INTERGRITY
2. SPORTS VALUES
3. RESEARCH METHODS SUMMER SCHOOL
4. LAW, ORGANISATIONS AND GOVERNANCE
5. OLYMPIC STUDIES
6. MASTER THESIS

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK

MAiSI provides a platform for world class teaching and research that is adaptive and flexible to technological developments, helping to shape policy and governance frameworks in sport ethics and integrity.

MAiSI will produce a new generation of integrity champions, professionally trained to work in the sports industry as integrity leaders, who will work to preserve sport, by utilising state-of-the-art critical thinking and cutting edge solutions.

MAiSI offers a comprehensive and in-depth view on sports ethics and integrity, combining world-class multidisciplinary research in law, business, management, ethics, sport science, and philosophy.

It will shape the future of ethical sports policy and governance by providing an international network of committed academics, corporate organisations and alumni with a global reach.